FEELING ^DVENTUROUS?

We love coffee and mostly because of it's diversity. The taste can be very surprising and will never be the same. It's an expedition for our barista's and an adventure for you. An adventure to enjoy from the first until the last sip.

We are always looking for different beans to surprise you. That's why we work with multiple coffee roasters. For every type of bean we are looking for the best brewing method and recipe. Tell us what you like and let us help you on your journey.
